The Chair cites the EPC.

MOTION  Moved: Brayiannis  Seconded: Tootonsab

Be it resolved that Chaman Bukhari be ratified as the Vice-President External for the 2019-20 fiscal year.

Taj speaks against the motion and notes that during the election the individual made transphobic comments and the students who voted did not have the time to take that into account, and they have been lied to.

Lhamo asks for a point of information on the unions mandate, mission statements and equity statements, and that the concerns will be taken seriously. The union will be more than willing to ensure that folks have support and people go to and have training.

Eilia speaks on the article that was published in the The Underground. He states that, objectively, his comments are different the specific comment.

Syed (Board) mentions that at face value those comments are questionable, but there is contexts where the individual could’ve said transphobic comments. Syed would like to know what exactly happening because he does not think it’s fair to completely come to a conclusion on it.

Kadhem mentions that the individual is coming.

Eilia mentions that The Undergrounds asked the individual for context, however, the individual refused to answer and did not follow through.

Taj mentions that this can be read differently, but the individual was not showing this side while the individual was campaigning. Taj’s understanding is that her opinion would be swayed if she was voting for him, and that there’s a nicer way to get across ideas when the topic is sensitive. Taj urges the Board of Directors to vote with her.
Tsai mentions that she is neither against nor in favor of the motion. Tsai mentions that it is not up to the marginalized person to find out if one is their ally or not, no student should have to reach out. Tsai notes that getting electing into this role to serve students should mean that students should not need to question whether they are an ally or not.

Lhamo motions to give speaking rights to Arda

Seconded: Dang

Vote: majority in favor

Motion carries

Arda mentions that people voted for the individual knowing the article, and that not ratifying the individual today would ignore the members’ decision.

Taj notes that this is one of her concerns; the article would have come hours before the voting was ending, which was not enough time for an informed decision. Taj would like students to make informed decision and knowing they are voting for the truth.

Eilia asks if the Board believes that there would have been a different outcome, and if this was the motivation for a no vote.

Taj motions to give Bukhari speaking rights

Seconded: Lagman

Vote: majority in favor

Motion carries

Bukhari mentions that Taj was his good friend and now she is not. Bukhari notes that it is reasonable to say that opinions do shift in light of the media. Putting into context, Bukhari notes that the screenshot was from two years ago with. Bukhari then mentions the Pakistani Students Association from two years ago and the co-president.

Chair mentions that Bukhari cannot talk about specific individuals as it is not about relevant to the motion. The Chair notes that the motion is about the ratification for himself, and therefore should only discuss this as per Robert’s Rules of Order.

Bukhari mentions that it is difficult to contextualize this now and speaks on the screenshot, as it was taken out of context. Bukhari mentions that it was sent to someone with ill intentions. Bukhari then talks about the word “nonsense”.

Taj mentions that this was not a conversation about “nonsense”.

Bukhari mentions that he is happy to discuss with people after the meeting, and that he stands firmly with the LGBTQ community, and that the screenshot are not his views.

Syed (Board) asks if the Chair has read the article.

Chair says no.

Eiliah mentions that they have reached out to Bukhari to ask for comments, but he refused to give context. Eiliah agrees there is subjective nature to the statement, and it should be up to the Board to decide.

Lhamo mentions that there are more serious issues if there is someone that is transphobic on the Board, Lhamo does not think it is okay to lead 14,000 students on campus if they are transphobic. Lhamo states that no matter what time it is, people should be held to their actions, and that it would be unacceptable.

Lagman mentions that they were not there when the vote happened as they were in the washroom.

The Chair notes that there was quorum at the time.

Lagman mentions again that they were in the washroom and that they do not think it’s a fair situation because they were not able to contribute.

Lhamo asks if the Chair can be overruled

Chair mentions that this would not be following Roberts Rules of Order.

Pineda mentions that it is not overruling the Chair per se because the Chair did not make a decision on this, rather the Board did. It would be overruling the decision of the Board Pineda explains.

Dang calls for a point of information on the proxy act.

The Chair notes that the person is not a Board member, so it would not necessarily apply to them.

Taj points out that votes could’ve been swayed at a five percent margin, so the Board should consider that when they are voting on the motion.

Brayiannis calls for a secret ballot because the amount of abstentions votes could have meant folks were worried about voting.
Ballots were handed to voting members of the Board.

The Marketing Group

Bahl mentions they have not attended clubs training, so the most we can give is conditional. The event is for Annual Charity Fashion Show, submitted on February 3 and the event was on November 14. The event was 6-9pm and 170 people attended and they charged $5 a person, which is $865. The income is zero because they donated to a charity. The expenses came to $170.75 They also applied for DSL funding, the committee checked and did not see them on the DSL list. They spent on printing and posters, supplies, Walmart, Dollarama, Curry’s Art Store, Amazon. They indicated that they charged $5 a person but they’ve put zero for their revenue, they also had sponsors which may have been clothing donation. With Charity we mention they pay expenses.

The committee agrees to contact the club and encourage them to attend Clubs Training. The Committee is giving them an orange which is a conditional pass.

Islamic Relief at UTSC
Elkas mentions it’s for volunteer orientation and they’ve provided receipts. They attended Clubs Training. They submitted on February 3, 2019 and the event was on January 25, 2019. The event had 31 people, no charge. $85.56. The application was submitted correctly.
